

Itinerary cruise "Venice - Athens (Budapest gypsy Symphony orchestra Cruise)"

Explore the Mediterranean secrets through Compagnie du Ponant. The most luxurious cruise invites you for a magical cruise on board Le Levant! Their splendour and romance will make your cruise unforgettable!

ITINERARY

DAY	PROGRAM	ARRIVAL	DEPARTURE
Day 1	Venice (Italy) Embarkation in Venice (Italy) in the evening	-	19:00
Day 2	Trogir (Croatia)	12:30	22:00
Day 3	Mljet (Croatia)	08:00	15:00
	Dubrovnik (Croatia) The walled city of Dubrovnik (Croatia) built on a rock battered by the waves has preserved all its Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque monuments. Its palaces, monuments and white stone churches are in perfect harmony. Long considered as a rival to Venice, traces of its illustrious past are to be found throughout the city which is a UNESCO World Heritage site.	19:00	-
Day 4	Dubrovnik (Croatia)	-	22:30
Day 5	At sea	-	-
Day 6	Parga (Greece) In the heart of a sheltered cove on the north western shores of Greece in the Epirus province, Parga was Venetian from the 15th to the end of the 18th century. During that period it belonged to Ali Pacha, a high official of Soliman the Magnificent. Its imposing Venetian citadel built on a steep rocky promontory dominates the town, the port and the sweet smelling pines which surround it. Today it is a lovely seaside resort.	07:00	15:00
Day 7	Itea (Greece) View details of this port of call Hide this port of call From Itea we enter the immaculately preserved sacred site of the Delphi valley. Clinging to the precipitous slopes of the mountain, the white ruins of Apollo's famous sanctuary rise up out of the pines, olive trees and cypresses. In total harmony with nature, it was a symbol of the unity of the Greek world in the 6th Century BC. the stadium and theatre offer a wonderful viewpoint	07:00	14:00

	across the Pleistos Valley. Then, a grandiose impressive work of art linking the Ionian and Aegean Seas, the Corinth Canal is the fruit of a dream dating back to ancient times. the Emperor Nero had at one time envisaged its creation. A grandiose impressive work of art linking the Ionian and Aegean Seas, the Corinth Canal is the fruit of a dream dating back to ancient times. the Emperor Nero had at one time envisaged its creation.
Day 8	Santorini (Greece) View details of this port of call Hide this port of call A natural port surrounded by cliffs, the ancient site of there is circular in shape corresponding to the collapsed centre of the volcano which erupted here. Indeed, this cataclysmic event was probably behind the Atlantis myth and numerous other legends and tales from ancient manuscripts.	11:00	23:00
	Paros (Greece)	07:00	12:30
	Siros (Greece)	15:00	22:00
Day 9	Athens (Greece) Disembarkation	07:00	-